

Texas Demographic Center Conference

May 22-24, 2022

Tuesday, May 24, 1:00- 5:00 PM

State of the State: Texas Demographic Characteristics and Trends	Dr. Lloyd Potter, Texas State Demographer
Race and Ethnicity and the 2020 Census	-Merarys Rios, Population Division, U.S. Census Bureau -Jessica Peña, Population Division, U.S. Census Bureau
Texas Demographic Center Research and Products	Staff members, Texas Demographic Center

Wednesday, May 25, 1:00- 5:00 PM

Update on 2020 Census Products	-Jason Devine, Assistant Division Chief of the Census Programs Area, U.S. Census Bureau -Alexandra Krause, Survey Statistician, Census Programs Area, U.S. Census Bureau
2020 Census Coverage: Results From the Post-Enumeration Survey	Scott Konicki, Chief, Sampling Branch, U.S. Census Bureau
Population Projection Methodology: An analysis of Harris and Galveston Counties	Dr. Steven Craig, Department of Economics, University of Houston
Texas Census Institute: Making Every Texan Count	Angela Broyles, Executive Director, Texas Census Institute

Thursday, May 26, 1:00- 5:00 PM

Texas Vital Events Data: Mortality and Natality data in Texas	Victor Farinelli, Medical Research Specialist, Center for Health Statistics, Texas Department of State Health Services
Texas KIDS COUNT: Health Equity for Every Texas Child	Kaitlan Wong, Research Analyst, Every Texan
Texas Employment Projections: A look into the future of the Texas labor market	Robert Sparkman, Lead Projections Analyst, Labor Market and Career Information, Texas Workforce Commission
Defining Urban and Rural at the U.S. Census Bureau	Michael Ratcliffe, Senior Advisor for Frames, Geography Division, U.S. Census Bureau
Texas Demographic Center Affiliates Meeting	Join us and learn about upcoming data products and plan for special technical assistance opportunities for your organization.