

Who Contributed to Texas' Population Growth?

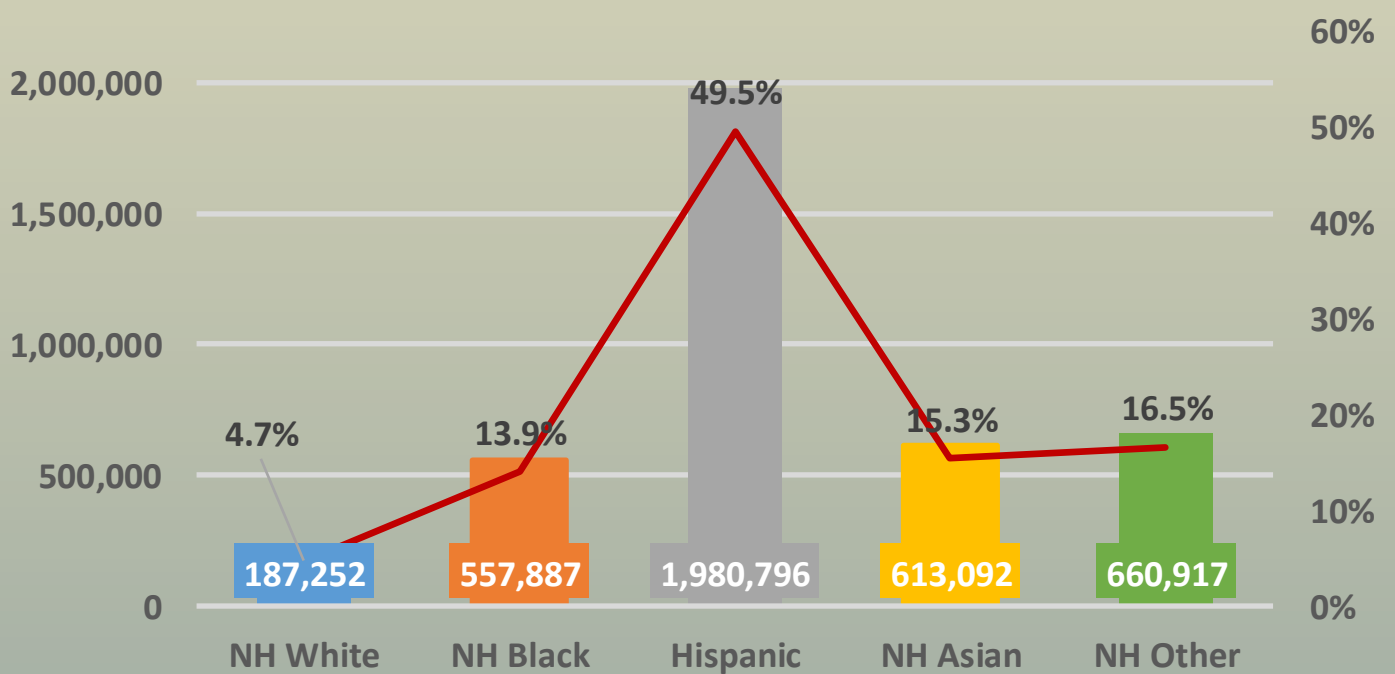

2010-2020

- ◆ The Texas population increased by 3.9 million people between 2010-2020. Hispanics made up the largest share of that increase (49.5%), followed by NH Other* (16.5%) and NH Asian (15.3%).
- ◆ Texas has become more ethnically diverse over the past decade with Hispanics, NH Blacks, NH Asians and NH Other groups making up a greater share of the total Texas population than NH Whites.

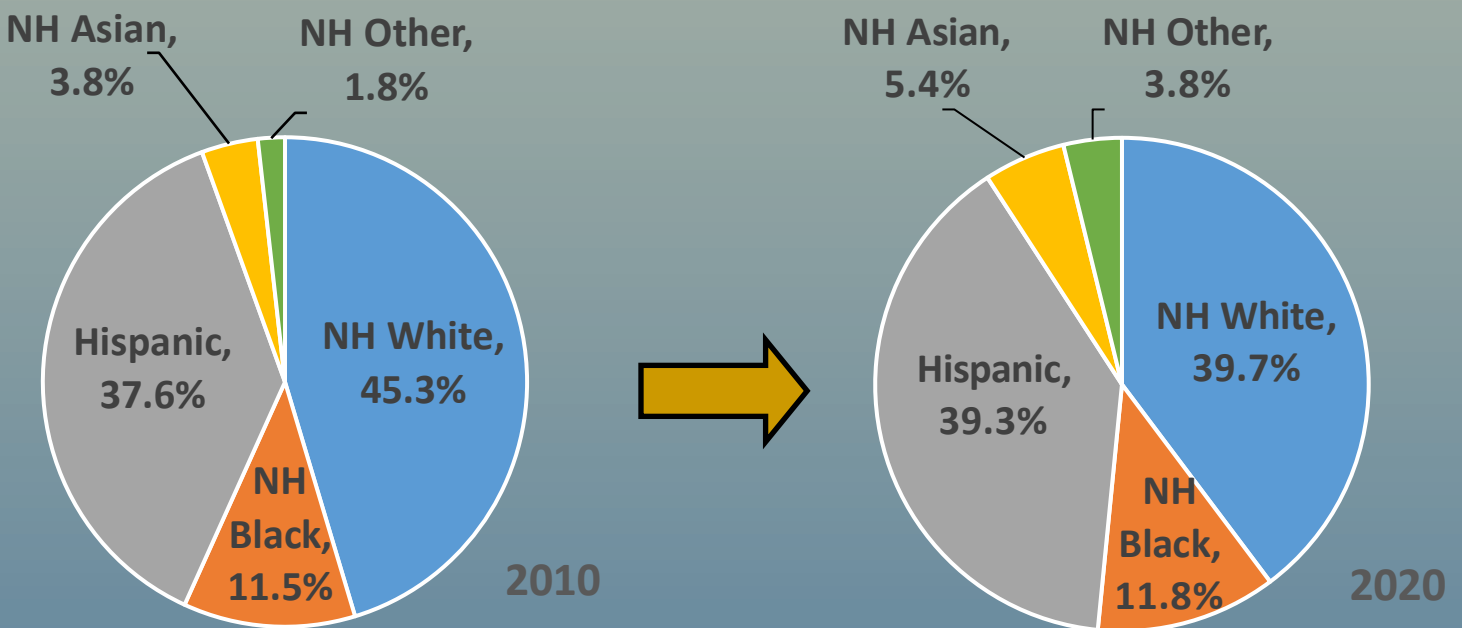

Between 2010 and 2020, Texas added

Contribution to Population Change by Race/Ethnicity

Percent of Total Population by Race/Ethnicity

*NH Other is a residual category that includes NH American Indian/Alaskan Native, NH Hawaiian Native/Pacific Islanders, NH some other race, and NH two or more races.